

4. On the last test, the tempter took Jesus to the temple, saying, "Jump down! Scripture says if you are the Son of God, the angels will catch you." Jesus replied, "Scripture says do not put God to the test." Finally, the tempter left him.

3. Next, the tempter showed Jesus power and wealth, saying, "If you worship me, I will give you riches and glory." Jesus remembered what the Bible says and again quoted scripture, saying, "Worship the Lord your God only."

1. After Jesus was baptized, he felt the Holy Spirit calling him to go to the wilderness to pray, fast, and be alone with God. At the end of forty days, the tempter came to him to tempt him.

2. The tempter knew Jesus was hungry and told Jesus to turn stones into bread. Jesus didn't listen, but instead quoted scripture, saying, "One does not live by bread alone." Remembering God's words made Jesus strong.
