

4. Jesus loved Thomas even when he doubted, so he helped him believe. When Thomas believed, Jesus sent him to share God's good news. Most of us do not see Jesus, yet we believe. Those who believe without seeing are blessed.

1. After Jesus' resurrection, he came to the disciples. The disciples were afraid. They had locked the doors tightly. Jesus appeared without even opening the door! Then, he showed the wounds in his hands and feet to prove he was alive.

3. Jesus showed Thomas his wounds and helped him to be brave and believe. Thomas believed, and said, "Jesus, you are God and my Lord!"

2. Thomas was not there that night. He wanted to believe the story, but he was afraid. He said, "I will not believe until I can see Jesus too!" The next time Thomas was with them, Jesus came too.
