

Luke 4:14-21

1. When Jesus went to Galilee, messages about him began to spread far and wide. Jesus taught in many synagogues and was praised by everyone. He even went to Nazareth, which is where he grew up.

2. While he was there, he went to the synagogue and was given a scroll to read. It had a reading from the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and began to read it.

4. After Jesus had read this, he rolled up the scroll, handed it back, and sat down. Everyone in the synagogue looked at him and began to say, "This Scripture came true today!"

3. It said: "The Spirit of God is with me, because God chose me to bring good news to the poor, announce freedom for the captives, recovery of sight for the blind, and freedom for the oppressed while proclaiming God's favor!"
