

4. God saw I was nervous. "It doesn't matter if you're a kid!" God said, "All that matters is I'll always be right there, looking after you. Together we'll weed out what's not working in the world and plant new, beautiful things."

3. Special plans? For me? I couldn't believe it. In all the stories of my ancestors, only grown-ups were given special jobs by God. I was just a kid! What did I know about God? Would anyone even listen to me?

1. Hello! My name is Jeremiah, and I'm a prophet. I've been sharing God's messages of justice and hope to my community since I was a kid. I still remember the day God called me and changed my life forever...

Jeremiah 1:4-10

2. It came out of nowhere. I heard a soft voice whisper, "Jeremiah! I've been waiting for this day since before you were born. I can't wait to tell you the special, holy plans I have in mind for you!"
