

4. The man was surprised by Jesus' answer, and he left, feeling sad because he had many possessions.

1. There once was a man who felt like he was missing something in his life. So he asked Jesus, "Teacher, what must I do to have a full and whole life?"

3. Jesus, looking at him with love, said, "You are missing one thing. Do this: sell everything you have, give that money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then follow me."

2. Jesus said, "You know all the commandments. I will also say do not trick people and take from them. You know God's rules and how to follow them." The man said, "Jesus, I have followed God's rules since I was young."
